

“Mideast at World Travel Awards 2018”

This year Mideast is nominated in the categories:

- Greece's Leading Destination Management Company 2018
- Europe's Leading Destination Management Company 2018

Our Lucky winner for Competition titled «Mideast at World Travel Awards 2018» is:

Eriola Tsaousai

The winner was picked with random.org

The Competition Prize is: A luxury stay in Loutraki, Greece: 6 days/5 nights at the Wyndham Loutraki Poseidon 5* in a Junior Executive Suite with Garden View and Breakfast daily for 2 persons for the period 20/09 – 31/10. Reservation is on request, and confirmation is subject to availability. No changes in the names of travelers and the dates of stay are permitted once the reservation is made. • The Prize delivered under these terms, to the exclusion of the provisions on seller's liability or other provisions implying liability in relation to actual defects, pre-agreed characteristics, etc., against Mideast. Furthermore, Mideast shall not bear any liability, civil or criminal for any winner or third party whatsoever, for any accident and/or loss and/or damage physical or material they may sustain directly or indirectly related to Prize or for any other reason.